

CMU's FACES OF GLOBALIZATION INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL PRESENTS

THE GARDEN

SPONSORED BY: Bayer School of Natural and Environmental Sciences, Center for Environmental Research and Education, Department of Sociology, MBA Sustainability Program, McAnulty School of Liberal Arts, School of Law, School of Leadership and Professional Advancement.

IF EVERYONE TOLD YOU NOTHING MORE COULD BE DONE, WOULD YOU GIVE UP?

Fourteen acres of farmland in the grain belt is an increasingly endangered entity. Fourteen acres of farmland in Los Angeles is an anomaly. Yet amongst the urban blight and memories of the 1982 L.A. riots, the South Central Farmers maintained an urban garden until bulldozers threatened to demolish their community.

Featuring an appearance by Director Scott Hamilton Kennedy, Dr. Stan Kabala (associate director of the Center for Environmental Research and Education), and Dr. Michael Irwin (Professor and Chair of Sociology), with a reception catered by East End Food Co-Op and Allegro Hearth Bakery.
